In the workshop "Queer Education - Sexual and Gender Diversity", with Sarah Thome (HOSI Salzburg), we want to focus on the transfer of basic LGBTIQ* knowledge and definitions of terms, the reflection of the respective personal as well as professional attitudes and the support and action recommendations for dealing with LGBTIQ* issues. The participants should gain an awareness of discrimination or bullying situations - with regard to the diversity dimension of gender and sexual orientation.

Open discussion on the topic "Intersectionality and Sapphic Life"

26.4.2022 / 18:00 - 21:00 / Lebenshilfe Werkstatt (Fürbergstraße 15)

or online (zoom)

wheelchair accessible

Language: German/English

With: Phi Lachmann, Zoe Gudovic

In compliance with 3G rules

In our Open Discussion, we take a look at Sapphic issues, identities, and experiences through an intersectional lens: how do ethnicity, gender, physical and mental impairments, and class, as well as privilege, influence our behavior and interactions with one another?

With Zoe Gudovic, we will address aspects of queer history, relationships, and lives that are often overlooked, oppressed, and subject to multiple forms of discrimination.

Everyone is invited, and we are looking forward to your own experiences, ideas and an interesting exchange!

Sex Positivity Workshop

27.4.2022 / 14-17 h / Frei:Raum (Kaigasse 17)

wheelchair accessible

Language: German (whispered translation into English possible)

With: Christine Nagl

Open to: WLINTA persons (women, lesbians, inter-, trans- and nonbinary people).

Registration at: femref@oeh-salzburg.at

Number of participants: max. 16

In compliance with 3G rules

Due to the taboo of sex and desire of FLINTA* persons in our society it is not always easy to feel what we want and what gives us pleasure. In the workshop "Sex Positivity" we want to look at how patriarchal structures influence our experience of sex and what ways there are to break free from them. How can we learn sex that is not shaped by heteronormative practices? How do we get rid of the constant view of ourselves from the outside? What is my body in the context of the society I live in, and how can I work to free it from the projections of that same queer-hostile society?

Together, in a safer space, we will discover new experiments and ideas, learn strategies of mindful body awareness, and explore forms of (queer) sex.

This workshop is a safe space! You share only what you want to share!

Christine Nagl is a queerfeminist activist focusing on sex work and board member of sexworker.at. She describes herself as an "old, white woman with freckles, experienced and knowledgeable in the field of sexuality, whether in pay or non-pay." Christine Nagl unabashedly confronts the conservative and hypocritical public discourses surrounding sex work in Salzburg and throughout Austria.

Writing & Transformation or Change on Paper

Workshop

28.04.2022 / 17:00 - 20:00 h / Applied Theatre (Franz Josef Strasse)

not wheelchair accessible

Language: German

With: Jenny Browne

Registration at: queerdos.berlin@gmail.com

Number of participants: max. 10

In compliance with the 3G rules

Are you up for a cozy afternoon sharing stories in good queer company?

As part of SAPPHIC POWER - Festival for Lesbian Visibility, we invite you to a writing workshop with Jenny Browne from Queerdos. Come have fun and let loose - your stories are here and queer and deserve to be heard!

In this 3-hour mini-workshop, we'll explore approaches to creative writing and what helps us open up and share our stories and experiences with each other.

What stories do you want to tell?

What is it like to be queer in this confusing world?

How can memory be used as a mode of transportation?

Through a variety of creative writing exercises, we will try to find ways to open up creatively in a "safe space." This is a place where we can celebrate and share our queerness, our softness, our journeys, and our fears. So let's put our thoughts on paper and feel seen, heard, and strong!

You don't have to be a writer* to participate in this workshop - everyone is welcome! This is about empowering ourselves and each other!

This workshop is a safe space! You share only what you want to share!

There will be an opportunity to present what you have written on Friday evening.

Jenny Browne's Biography

I'm Jenny. I'm an educator, translator and poet living in Berlin. I studied creative writing in the UK, where I grew up, and have been performing with the Queerdos Collective since 2013. I led creative writing workshops in Hungary and Moldova for Queerdos ACTing Up. I help with the "Q Kollektiv", a monthly queer youth club for German teenagers.

In my workshops we use poetry as a tool to reach deeper levels of self-expression. My creative writing explores queer identity, intimacy, and mental health because I believe the spoken word is a powerful form of expression.

Sapphic Power Party

Feel free to come by and let the art inspire, amaze and excite you!

At 2:00pm, there will be a piano improvisation by Lu at our exhibit. Lu studies philosophy at PLUS, is active in various leftist and queerfeminist groups in Salzburg, has been passionately playing the piano for many years, and is currently training in music production.

The call is still open, so if you are a non-heterosexual FLINTA person, make art in any form and would like to exhibit it at our festival, feel free to contact us: femref@oeh-salzburg.at
